Word of the week: Courageous

This week's recommended read

This week's recommended read is chosen by Miss Green! The festive book is called How the Grinch Stole Christmas which is a Christmas book written by Dr Seuss who is best known for his rhymed verse. It follows the story of the Grinch who is a cranky and miserable creature who attempts to ruin the nearby town of Whoville's Christmas plans by stealing the gifts and decorations on Christmas Eve. Miraculously, the Grinch realises that Christmas is not all just about money and presents...

Any other news

We would like to give a big thank you to all parents/carers and also the children for donating and buying all sorts of different poppy items from the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal. We received a certificate stating that Grove Lea Primary's collection total was a massive £223.86!

Make sure to keep updated on Class Dojo which will have all the information you need on all the upcoming events this December.
